

Measuring Gender Justice in Aquaculture and Fisheries: Tools & Lessons from Practice (IDRC)

Moderator: Madiha Ahmed, Senior Program Specialist, International Development Research Centre (IDRC)

Panelists:

- Dr. Zumilah Binti Zainalaludin, Associate Professor, Universiti Putra Malaysia
- Carolina Astri, GEDSI Senior Specialist, World Resources Institute Indonesia
- Dr. Stephanie S. Pimentel, Director, Research and Development, Capiz State University, Philippines
- Dr. Surendran Rajaratnam, Senior Lecturer, Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia

Discussant: Dr. Kyoko Kusakabe, Professor, Asian Institute of Technology (AIT) / Vice-Chair of the Gender in Aquaculture and Fisheries Section of the Asian Fisheries Society

GAF9 Conference
October 2, 2025

AQUADAPT: Nature-based Climate Solutions in Aquaculture Food Systems in Asia-Pacific

<https://idrc-crди.ca/initiative/aquadapt>
Aquadapt@idrc.ca

Jointly funded by IDRC and Global Affairs Canada, AQUADAPT is a four-year partnership (2023-2027) that addresses the intertwined critical challenges of climate change, biodiversity loss, and food insecurity through applied research on nature-based solutions in aquaculture for all genders and marginalized groups in Southeast Asia and the Pacific region.